Academics at Northeastern

Northeastern offers a rigorous academic experience tailored to your needs. We think pursuit of excellence happens best in a supportive, individualized environment. The diversity of our faculty and students means that you will benefit from both the understanding that comes from shared cultural backgrounds and the enrichment that comes from a variety of cultures.

- We have approximately 500 faculty. Many of the faculty bring with them experiences from different countries.
- Our student body is the most diverse in the Midwest.
- Northeastern is a federally designated Hispanic-Serving Institution.
