

Policy on First Class Session Attendance

First Class Session Attendance Policy

A faculty member may reassign a registered student's seat in a class if the student does not attend the first class session and neglects to inform the faculty member in advance. The student is responsible for any financial consequence if the student does not officially drop his/her course before the end of the 100% refund period.

The University does not drop students from their classes due to non-attendance.

A student who does not officially drop/withdraw from the course will receive a failing grade at the end of the semester.
