

Honors:Women's/Gender Studies (ZWGS)

ZWGS-101. Honors: Women's Perspectives And Values. 3 Hours.

This course examines the philosophical basis of patriarchy and analyzes the impact of gender on the lives of women. Emphasis is placed on the effect that ethnicity, race, class and sexual orientation have in determining the status of women in our society. Feminist theory and creative writing are studied; women's voices, perspectives and values are discussed. (This is a General Education course in the area of Humanities.).

ZWGS-210. Honors: Introduction To Lesbian, Gay, Bisexual, Transgender & Queer Studies. 3 Hours.

See course description for WGS-210. Contains further components required of Honors Program students.

ZWGS-302. Honors: Feminist Theory. 3 Hours.

See course description for WGS-302. Contains further components required of Honors Program students.

Prerequisite: WSP-101 with a minimum grade of C or WGS-101 with a minimum grade of C.

ZWGS-311. Honors: Power, Knowledge & Communities: Feminists Engagements With Education. 3 Hours.

See course description for WGS-311. Contains further components required of Honors Program students.

ZWGS-360. Honors: Queer Theory. 3 Hours.

See course description for WGS-360. Contains further components required of Honors Program students.

Prerequisite: WGS-210 with a minimum grade of D or WSP-210 with a minimum grade of D.