The NEIU Libraries are the perfect place to study, read, collaborate, and relax. Whether you need scholarly articles for an assignment, or you're just looking for a fun new book to check out, our friendly and knowledgeable librarians can assist you in person through both scheduled and walk-in consultations. Can't visit campus today? We're happy to support you by phone, in chat, and through email. The Libraries give you access to nearly 1.2 million electronic, print, and media items, many of which you can view from off-campus with your NetID and password. We house a growing collection of textbooks and other course resources on reserve for your use, and we loan out various kinds of equipment to help you successfully complete your studies.

IRAD and University Archives

The Ronald Williams Library serves as the Illinois Regional Archives Depository (IRAD) (<https://neiulibraries.libguides.com/c.php?g=60370&p=7347014>) for Chicago and Cook County, housing and providing access to a portion of the city's and county's archival materials. Additionally, the library preserves the historical documents of Northeastern Illinois University within the University Archives (<https://www.neiu.edu/neiu-libraries/services/university-archives/>). Digitized selections from the University Archives' collections are available for viewing online (<https://neiudc.neiu.edu/archives/>). Both collections can be found on the library's lower level. For more information, please contact the University Archivist (universityarchives@neiu.edu) or visit the guide to the collections (<https://neiulibraries.libguides.com/c.php?g=60370&p=387670>).
